DRI Announces Strategic Initiative with Risk Solutions International

(May 18, 2005, Falls Church, VA)— DRI International (DRII), the leading provider of certification and educational programs in the business continuity and disaster recovery field, announced that John Copenhaver, CBCP, has been named to the position of President and Chief Executive Officer on a full time basis.

DRII also reported that it would be pursuing an expansion of services including actively promoting the global expansion of DRII, developing new programs aimed at strengthening and expanding the mission of the organization, developing the DRII brand and developing partnerships with others in the field.

Mr. Copenhaver is a Partner and Executive Vice President of Risk Solutions International LLC, which is providing Mr. Copenhavers services to DRII as its full time President and CEO.

Mr. Copenhaver will be based in Atlanta and will have oversight responsibility for DRIIs Falls Church, VA center. Mr. Copenhaver has 20 years of leadership experience in general management, emergency management and strategic planning for both government and business. He is President of the Board of the Global Partnership for Preparedness. Most recently John was Senior Vice President, Risk Consulting for Marsh Inc. He was appointed by the President of the United States as Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Region IV where he served for four years and directed the United States largest natural disaster recovery.

Mr. Copenhaver is a member of a strong team of Risk Solutions International professionals, and will be focusing strongly on DRIIs service to the business continuity industry. I am looking forward to working with all of DRIIs constituents, members, employees and other business partners to build upon DRIIs solid foundation, said Mr. Copenhaver.

I believe that DRIIs clients, employees and service providers will find Johns energy, experience and vision exciting and the Risk Solutions team will help to add depth to DRIIs management capabilities, said Belinda Wilson, CBCP Vice Chairman of DRII and Executive Director, Business Continuity Services for Hewlett-Packard.

About DRI International
